“NEW NAME....SAME GREAT EVENT AND LOCATION!”

~$5,000 in prize money (and maybe more to come), trophies and ribbons, including the Mayor's Spirit Award for best team spirit and booth decorations.

~The Grand Champion will vie for the opportunity to compete in national competitions in Memphis, Lynchburg or Kansas City.

~Molalla is proud to present an official sanctioned two-day “Low & Slow” state championship barbecue cookoff.

~There will be scrip sales for sampling and opportunities for full food vendors.

Visit www.molallaswildriverbbq.com or SEE CONTACT LIST FOR DETAILS!

WHAT:

*To celebrate classic American barbecue with an official sanctioned two-day “Low & Slow” state championship barbecue cook-off. Our competition allows teams from all over the Northwest and western Canada to test their mettle in the traditional categories of ribs, brisket, pork and chicken. We will share that tradition with the public through tasting and judging.

WHY:

- * To present the northwest's premier officially sanctioned barbecue championship
- * To bring visitors to the Molalla River Corridor in Oregon's Mt. Hood Territory
- * To raise funds for the Molalla Rotary Education Foundation, a 501(c)3, for education in the community

WHO:

- Molalla Communications Cooperative
- City of Molalla
- Molalla Rotary Education Foundation
- Pacific Northwest BBQ Association
- The greater community of Molalla

WHEN:

Saturday & Sunday, July 9 & 10, 2011

WHERE:

Clark Park 815 Shirley Street,
Molalla, Oregon 97038

Located next to the rodeo grounds in the shady oak grove. Excellent parking.

Limited power available, fresh water, grease/ash/garbage dump, 'real' restrooms will also be available.

A FULL VENDING option is available and appropriate licenses and permits are required.

Competitors are encouraged to sell samples. Scrip will be sold in $1, $5 and $10 denominations (no cash sales). Samples can be small pieces of the competition meats, wings, sausage, etc., priced at $1 or $2 per sample. No complete meals or beverages are to be sold as samples. In support of the fundraising for education, meat is not to be given away.

At the end of the CookOff, 75% of scrip sales will go to the cooks and 25% to the Rotary Education Foundation. Teams are also allowed to sell other BBQ products such as sauces or rubs, following the same percentage split.

ENTRY FEE $150 UNTIL JULY 2ND $175 AFTER JULY 2ND
